McCoy completes move to Wycombe Wanderers

WEALDSTONE defender Marvin McCoy agreed a one-year contract with League Two side Wycombe Wanderers on Tuesday.

The 21-year-old right back picked up the player of the season award last season for the Stones and has earned a move to Adams Park after impressing on trial.

Former Watford youngster McCoy is the fourth Wealdstone player to sign a professional contract in the last two years following in the footsteps of Jermaine Beckford, Graeme Montgomery, Carl Martin and Reece Yorke.

As part of the agreement, Wycombe will play Wealdstone in a friendly within the next year and the Ryman Premier club could benefit financially if he enjoys a successful professional career.

Stones boss Gordon Bartlett said: "I am delighted for him. Not only is he a good player but he is a really genuine lad who has worked very hard. It shows what hard work and determination can achieve.

"I think it proves this is a good breeding ground for young players and it's great to see yet another player benefit from the environment here.

"In normal circumstances we deal directly with the club and all parties are happy with the situation. This has been dealt with by his agent and it has taken a bit longer and not gone as smoothly as usual." The Stones lost 3-1 at home to Dagenham and Redbridge in their latest friendly on Monday night.

The opening goal for Dagenham and Redbridge came after 34 minutes when Gavin Tomlin guided his low header into the net. Before Wealdstone had the chance to reply, they had fallen 2-0 behind as Tomlin struck again from close range after his first effort had been parried.

Dagenham made ten changes in the second half including bringing on Montgomery against his old club and the tricky winger looked sharp on his return to Grosvenor Vale.

The visitors killed off the match five minutes after the restart when Montgomery's strike was saved and replacement forward Josh Scott tucked away the rebound. Greg Ngoyi managed a late consolation for the home side late on.

Bartlett said: "I was pleased with the first and third part of the game but the bit in between was a little bit disappointing because I felt we let it get away from us.

"The fitness levels looked decent and I thought we were the better team for the first half hour. You have to remember that they were well ahead of us in terms of their preparation and this was only our second match."

The Stones continue their pre-season this weekend with a trip to Aylesbury before visiting Hillingdon Borough two days later.
