News briefly

Morgan agrees new contract

EOIN MORGAN has signed a new two-year contract with Middlesex. The England batsman made his debut for the club in 2004 and has attracted plenty of interest after his international breakthrough this year. Middlesex have also agreed a deal to sign Derbyshire batsman Chris Rogers.

Strarries set for season opener

SARACENS launch their Premiership title assault on Saturday when they take on London Irish at Twickenham. Brendan Venter's side were runners-up last season after a thrilling defeat to Leicester Tigers in the final. The Men in Black could field new signings Kelly Brown and David Strettle this weekend.

Tigers lose to Hanwell Town

KINGSBURY LONDON TIGERS lost 3-2 at home to Hanwell Town on Saturday. Edson Cata headed the hosts in front but Town levelled through Charlie Baverstock. Milo Brown handed the visitors the lead but Mohamed Bettamer made it 2-2. Blaize O'Brien netted a second-half winner.

Wealdstone hopeful over Ngoyi return

by SIMON MAIL
smail@london.newsquest.co.uk

WEALDSTONE manager Gordon Bartlett remains hopeful Greg Ngoyi will be fit to return this weekend.

The Stones striker was forced off during Saturday's 3-0 win over Horsham after colliding with the visiting goalkeeper. He missed the 2-1 defeat at AFC Hornchurch on Monday but could yet return to the side when they host in-form Bury Town on Saturday.

Bartlett said: "Greg took a whack on the face and he has been for several check ups. He is going back on Friday where we hope that he will be given the all-clear. He still has swelling around his eye but he is a possibility for the weekend."

Efforts from Ngoyi and Peter Dean (two) completed the routine win but the Stones were stung by a second-half comeback at Hornchurch. Scott Fitzgerald fired Wealdstone in front but a controversial penalty, given for handball, sparked the turnaround with two quick goals handing Hornchurch the points.

Bartlett said: "For 70 minutes we matched them and I thought we had the better of it. We were 1-0 up and their goalkeeper pulled off a couple of saves which kept them in it."

"The referee gave a rather strange penalty and it changed the game. It certainly looked soft from where I was and they took full advantage of it. It was a game where I didn't feel we were in any trouble and yet we ended up coming away with nothing."

Bury Town have won three of their first four league games and Bartlett expects them to be in the promotion shakeup at the end of the season.

The Stones boss said: "Bury Town have made a very good start to the season. They are a very good side and well fancied this year but then so are we."

'The referee lost control'

HARROW BOROUGH manager David Howell accused the referee of losing control in their 3-2 home defeat to Hendon on Monday.

Boro were leading 2-1 with less than 20 minutes remaining when visiting manager Gary McCann berated the referee for failing to give a penalty. The ref awarded two penalties in the space of the last ten minutes which sent Boro to their first home defeat of the season.

Howell said: "If it was anybody else on the pitch then they would have been given a yellow or red card. He [McCann] may have influenced or intimidated the referee to a degree. I think he put pressure on the ref and he lost control of the match."

Boro took the lead after goals from Troy Hewitt and Dean Marney but Howell was the first to admit his team were below par.

"We were fortunate to be 2-1 up but it was disappointing with the way we lost it," he said.

"We weren't really flowing and we did not have our normal rhythm. Everything was a struggle for us and we were stretched a little."

Howell made a number of changes to his side after their excellent 2-1 win at Tonbridge Angels on Saturday.

Danny McGonigle headed the visitors into the lead after 28 minutes and they doubled their advantage when Rocky Baptiste poked the ball home from close range. The hosts pulled one back but Boro, despite seeing Danny Leech sent off for two bookings, held on for their first win at Tonbridge.

Howell added: "It was a complete performance by us. We were disciplined and committed. It was a strong performance where we worked hard and thoroughly deserved the three points."
