Jolly hat-trick seals Trophy win

by SIMON MAIL

RICHARD JOLLY scored a hat-trick as Wealdstone thrashed Banbury United 4-0 in their FA Trophy replay on Tuesday night.

The Stones battled to a goalless draw in the away match on Saturday but were far too strong for Banbury in the return game at Grosvenor Vale. Wealdstone's reward is a home game against Uxbridge in the first round on Saturday, December 10.

Manager Gordon Bartlett said: "The difference between the two games was our energy levels were not good enough on Saturday. But on Tuesday we got more possession, looked bright and passed the ball very well.

"When you play sides who are equal or of a lesser standing at home you have to take advantage.

"On paper, Uxbridge at home doesn't look a bad draw but they have won 13 of their last 15 games. All you can ask for is a home draw."

Wealdstone were never in danger of losing the replay after taking the lead through Chris O'Leary after 19 minutes.

The midfielder, who recently returned from a short spell at St Albans City, received the ball from Peter Dean's flick on and volleyed past visiting goalkeeper Andrew Kemp.

O'Leary turned provider for the Stones a couple of minutes later when he threaded a pass through to Jolly and the striker calmly fired past Kemp.

Wealdstone almost added a third goal shortly afterwards when Dean struck a powerful shot which was pushed away by Kemp.

Banbury created their first decent opportunity seven minutes before the break when Will Green fired over the bar from 20 yards.

Bartlett's team killed off the tie three minutes into the second half when Alex Dyer pulled the ball back for Jolly to sidefoot his effort past Kemp.

It should have been 4-0 minutes later but Nikki Ahamed somehow poked the ball wide from close range.

But their final goal of the game came when Scott McCubbin played in Jolly to complete his hat-trick.

The Stones travel to struggling Concord Rangers this weekend hoping to repeat their 6-1 win from last season.

Anderson upset with team effort

HARROW BOROUGH manager Dave Anderson accused his side of not competing in their 2-0 home defeat to Margate on Saturday.

The Reds were second best throughout and Anderson hit out after his side again performed poorly following their previous defeat to Concord Rangers.

Anderson said: "We just never competed and I don't think we created one big chance. We started the game poorly and we were second best. Margate were well worthy of the win.

"There weren't many positives, apart from goalkeeper Will Viner, I could take from the game.

"I can't accept the last two performances."

Anderson has admitted he is on the lookout to bring a couple of players to Earlsmead after two below par performances from his side.

He said: "As a manager you want to see endeavour and I just didn't get that on Saturday.

"We have had a great run but that doesn't give us licence to put in two performances like we have."

The Reds face a tricky home game against promotion chasers Lewes this weekend.
