Wealdstone hold Zola's Watford to friendly draw

WEALDSTONE earned a 1-1 draw with Championship side Watford in their pre-season opener at Grosvenor Vale.

The Stones were well worthy of the result against Gianfranco Zola's new club, in front of a bumper gate of 1,335 supporters.

The Hornets created the first opening of the match but Joe Garner's header fell straight into the arms of new goalkeeper Rikki Banks.

Watford took the lead after 13 minutes when Mark Yeates fired powerfully past the dive of Banks.

Wealdstone suffered an immediate setback after the goal when trialist full-back Nathan Webb was forced off with an injury.

Another trialist, Rob Carrick, came close to grabbing an equaliser but his angled shot flew just past the far post.

Peter Dean was then unlucky to see his effort blocked on the line by one of his own team-mates.

At the other end, Watford should have sealed the win through Matty Whichelow but his shot was saved by Banks.

But Wealdstone managed to get the equaliser after 77 minutes when Peter Dean's corner was headed home superbly by Wes Parker.

Watford almost immediately found a second goal but Craig Forsyth's strike rose narrowly over the crossbar.

The hosts were again indebted to Banks in the final minute when he prevented the visitors grabbing a winner.

The shot stopper produced a brilliant reaction save to deny winger Whichelow.

Gordon Bartlett's side continue their build-up to the new season on Saturday when they face Blue Square Premier side Braintree Town.

The Stones held their own against Championship side Watford on Saturday.
