STONES seeking further executive appointments

Randall takes fan role

LONG-STANDING Wealdstone fan Mark Randall has been appointed to the club's executive board.

Randall joins the newly-formed board as supporters' representative and will take forward the views of fans and through his position as co-chair of the Stones' Supporter's Club Committee.

Together with Adam Edwards, Randall has been instrumental in setting up and developing the highly successful WFC Megastore as well as many other club fund-raising initiatives.

Wealdstone chairman Peter Marsden said: "We are delighted to welcome Mark onto the board and his input from a truly fan's perspective will be of immense value."

"The board has also recently agreed a new formula in achieving the very important task of bringing new directors onto the executive board as there must be a balance of people that can bring financial investment to the club as well as expertise."

"We are currently talking to several interested individuals from within and outside the club and we welcome discussions with interested persons that can make the necessary commitments to the club"

St Marys suffer first-day defeat

HARROW TOWN FARE BETTER AS NEW CRICKET SEASON GETS UNDER WAY

It was a disappointing start to the season for Harrow St Marys on Saturday as they lost by three wickets away to Stanmore in the Middlesex County Cricket League.

Three wickets in quick succession proved to be St Marys' downfall, as Pritesh Vaghela, Aaman Soni and Tom Pettet were all dismissed one after another, leaving the Division Two side at 72-5.

But Jaimit Patel scored 39 and Kunj Thakkar added 21 from 15 balls late on to leave St Marys with a total of 168-6 to defend.

It was to prove insufficient though, with Stanmore reaching the target as scores of 41 from Kusk Patel and 34 from Marc Reingold helped the home side reach 172-7 to secure the three-wicket victory.

Having reduced Stanmore to 52-4, St Marys were well in the game but their opponents put on almost 100 for the next two wickets to take control.

Harrow Town enjoyed better fortunes in Division Three as they started their campaign in style with a 36-run win over North London.

Harrow batted first and set a target of 217 for their opponents to chase, thanks to notable contributions from Mohamed Gouse (58), Muhammad Arshad (48) and Tharindu Denipitiyage (42).

However, Town's bowlers were in top form, as three wickets apiece from Uzairuddin Mohammed and Denipitiyage helped bowl North London all out for 181, securing Harrow the win and 10 points.
