Comments from the Boardroom

We would like to welcome to Lower Mead for the second time this Season our friends from Boston and hope the players, officials and supporters have a very enjoyable evening.

We are expecting a tough match tonight as our opponents reached the semi-final of the Trophy, being unlucky to loose to Mossley.

We hope we can keep our unbeaten record tonight, as we have already knocked Boston out of the League Cup and drawn with them away.

It was against Boston that our fortunes changed for the better this season. At the time of our first meeting we were lying at the bottom of the League, having just lost our Manager, Alan Foggerty, and it was Ken Paynes first match in charge. Since then Ken has won the 'Manager of the Month' in January and has moved us to a safe position in the League this Season.

This would not have been possible without the help of a lot of other people.

First we had the unfortunate illness of Ken Wiltshire, which put a lot more work onto Ken Jones our Fixtures Secretary, who did a very good job until he was taken ill himself after Christmas. Luckily we had Bill Emerson who has done marvels keeping both jobs going, and Mrs Emerson and her daughter who have helped with programme sales and the gates on match days and numerous other jobs.

But there are many people behind the scenes who contribute an awful lot to make things run smoothly on a match day.

People such as George, the groundsman, who is often seen here on Saturday morning at 7 o'clock forking off the pitch and Les Boyle and Les . . . who prepare the kit and the boots and who are always around the ground most days of the week helping out.

To Tom and Julie Verrall for their help in the tea hut and the Board room and our thanks to everybody else who has helped behind the scenes this Season.

The Board would like to thank the Supporters Club for their very generous gift of £2,000 and you the supporters for your enthusiastic support in home and away games this season, up and down the country in rain or snow.

We hope to see you during the closed season helping to improve our ground facilities.

EVERY SHOT A WINNER

First XI News

This is the last bulletin concerning first team activity for this season, but with the inevitable timelag for printing purposes, the most recent matches upon which to comment are our two home engagements against Northwich Victoria and Bath City respectively. In the interim they will, of course, have received full coverage in the local press. I do not therefore propose to deal with these games in detail. In both games there was a common factor in that we did an immense amount of work midfield, and got through a large amount of running, but in the end, earned scant reward for our labours, because of our lack of cutting power in the vital six-yard area. Against Northwich we were possibly a shade unlucky to concede both points. With a reshuffled side, and players playing out of position, we still managed to build up a fair degree of cohesion, and defended stoutly throughout the encounter. We conceded the all important vital goal, at the worst time in a match—just two minutes from the break.

The most important fact from our shared points with Bath City was the certainty of eluding the relegation zone of the League, and suffering the indignity of relegation after the first season of Alliance soccer. For the second game running we looked fated to a half-time deficit, when Bath took the lead five minutes to the interval, but within two minutes we earned a penalty, when Neil Cordice was shoved off the ball in the box, and Seamus Horgan converted to square the issue.

Congratulations to Ian Cranstone who passed John Morton's previous record of 120 appearances "between the sticks" in this game. I will not venture into the field of statistics, because Roy Couch is so much better at it than I, but just for the record in A.P.L. league and cup encounters Stuart Pearce was the only player whose name was on every team sheet in the 39 matches played to date. He played in 38 and was substitute for the opening game. Robin Wainwright and Neil Cordice missed one match each, and just to round off, in the 39 matches under review we called upon 23 players, including nomination as substitute. Naturally, this does not take into account Saturday's game at Northwich.

Manager's Notes

We finally coughed and spluttered our way to safety, and guaranteed ourselves another season in the Alliance. Our performances from September to February gave us all a great deal of satisfaction, and it is on performances of that kind that I shall be building for next season. Injuries and players' loss of form have meant that we lost a little of our early promise, but nobody can deny that at least we have battled, and our character has helped us gain valuable points when it seemed we were on a loser.

Remember too that the players have faced uphill battles in most of our games this season. It's very hard when you are firmly entrenched at the bottom of the league, and it was from that position that we managed to reach 10th place during January. Believe me, that took an awful lot of effort from us all, and perhaps the players are now beginning to feel the strain.

After their summer break they will return refreshed and ready to face the new demands I shall be placing on them. One thing that we will improve on next season is our poor disciplinary record. Several of you have commented to me on this matter, and it is a problem of which I am very much aware. I must say that it is a record of which the players are not very proud, and we are all determined that next season will show a vast improvement.

So the curtain comes down on another season of football at Lower Mead, and our minor successes of this season may be remembered in years to come. I will continue to work to ensure that next season will be a good one to look back on. Ken Payne

The last edition for this season—at least for a few weeks, no hectic dashing around for copy, meeting printing deadlines, rushing from printers to ground on match days. Now is the time for chasing advertisers for next seasons programme and rethinking the format. More player news from the manager? Photographs? New cover? Glossy finish? COST??? The rest is really worth looking forward to. Enjoy your summer, folks.

Supporters Club Notes

Good evening supporters and welcome back to Lower Mead for this, our final home fixture of the 1979—80 season. Boston United, tonight's visitors, were our first victims under new manager Ken Payne—back in October—when we won the Alliance League Cup game here 3—2 after extra time. We've yet to be beaten by the Lincolnshire side, in fact, having drawn at York Street in the Cup (1—1) and League (0—0). It would be a fitting end to the Lower Mead season if we were to repeat that October win tonight.

Saturday's game at Northwich must have given everyone hope for next season. Against a team generally regarded as one of the strongest in the league—and who stole both points at Lower Mead only 11 days before—the 'Stones turned in their most convincing display for weeks and were only denied a goal by some indifferent finishing. With Willie Watson showing true England form, Wealdstone controlled play for long periods of the game but Nigel Johnson, Bobby Moss and Neil Cordice all wasted chances with the "Vics" defence nowhere to be seen.

It is no secret that Ken Payne is at present negotiating for several Football League players—lets just hope one of them has an eye for the half-chance!

The big news this week, however, is that the Supporters Club has handed over a cheque for £2,000 to the Football Club. It really is a magnificent sum, considering our limited facilities and potential, and if in fact you include the other monies paid to the Football Club over the course of the season it amounts to over £4,000.

Not bad for a club with a membership of little over 200! About 30 of those members took part in a grand challenge match at Roxeth Rec, South Harrow, before the Bath City game last week—and it finished with a final score: SFC Wealdstone 6, Rest of the World XI 1. Mick Fishman gave the "World" team an early lead, but SFC came back strongly in the second half to score through Pete Hurford, Donald Cross (2), Justin O'Brien (2) and A. N. Other.

SFC were at it again last Sunday when they beat Moss Motors, from the Watford Sunday League, 4—0 at Mill End. Scorers were O'Brien, Dylan Cross, Martin Allen and Dave Heath (?) from the penalty spot. An evening match versus Watford Supporters—to be played at Lower Mead on May 8th—is in the pipeline so watch the local press for details.

Sales of Long Ball Down The Middle have been going very well—with copies already winging their way to all parts of the British Isles—but there are still a lot left. So if you've not yet bought one, or think a friend may like one—fork out!

Late news: former 'Stones player Sammy McHale is now gracing the field at Farnborough Town, according to roving reporter Duncan Towell. Sam may be skill-less Duncan, but he is still a lot better than you.

UP THE 'STONES! PULVERISE THE PILGRIMS.

Reserve Team News

Our victory over Harrow Borough on Saturday 26th following our Away draw with them the preceding Saturday was doubly satisfying as the points also enabled us to maintain our impetus in the league. Paul Abel and Tony Kelly were the scorers in our 2-1 win.

As this is our last "issue" this season, the opportunity of congratulating the Reserves in general and their Manager Charlie Townsend in particular is gladly taken. Having only taken 8 points from their first 9 matches, under Charlie's leadership 35 points have been taken from their following 22 matches and brought a climb from 3rd from the bottom, to a possibility of becoming runners up if we beat Dorking next Saturday. Well done, all of you.
