ON THE BALL

with
Brian Hall

GOLA league points take priority this evening and it is imperative that we stay amongst the front runners at this very important time of the season.

Everyone is naturally overjoyed at the result on Saturday in the F.A. Trophy, and my thanks to you our supporters for impeccable behaviour and true backing on the terraces. Incidentally for those of you who left early, celebrations continued in the bar afterwards, and all in all it was a super day. So once again, thank you all and congratulations to the players on an excellent display and let us ensure that we keep working!

Our "road runner" Tony Caruana accompanied by our Coach les Reed, are also to be congratulated on the downfall of Frickley, as keeping ones finger on the pulse of non-league football is a part of the organisation not often recognised but of immense importance. Therefore, whilst all the excitement and furore is going on around us at present I personally wish to thank all my back-room staff for their loyalty and hard work throughout the season.

Commencing this evening we have five hard league games to play and following our match with Yeovil, we entertain Weymouth followed by a trip to Altrincham on Monday evening. This is followed by a trip to Gateshead on Wednesday evening, Runcorn at home the following Saturday, and the next two weeks is going to be a true test of our character. We have got the tools to do the job if we use our commonsense.

The Long, Long Road Gets Shorter . . . !

by Colin Pope

SATURDAY, March 16th, 1985 will go down as one of the milestones in this Club's long illustrious history. At 4.45 pm on that grey day, with snow swirling from a leaden sky, a lot of the pain and frustration that we have endured over the past decade or so, suddenly seemed a whole lot more bearable, as referee Alan Seville, from Birmingham, signalled the end of the match, and we were through to the semi-finals of the FA Trophy. Frickley Athletic, that tough, uncompromising side from the Yorkshire coal belt, had been snuffed out 3-1 after Wealdstone had turned in a superb performance.

It was a match not many of our Supporters relished. And I am quite certain that manager Brian Hall, in the privacy of his own thoughts, must have felt that we had a mountain to climb, having regard to Frickley's superb run in recent weeks which had made them, like us, contenders for the double.

Personally I felt I had not seen a Wealdstone side quite so motivated as we were on Saturday for many a long day. Commitment was there in abundance, and obviously the lads now have the 'smell' and 'feel' of Wembley in their blood!

Looking back, I suppose Frickley were killed off with that stunning 30 seconds opening goal, so spectacularly taken by our new striking sensation Andy Graham, after such superb work by Alan Cordice, who went on to crown a tremendous performance with two great goals of his own. These two bled the heart out of Frickley, while our defence can rarely have played a tighter game. I think a special word of appreciation is justified to goalkeeper Bob Iles. Bob's hand injury had, in fact, ruled him out of the match, but his newly signed deputy Paul Cotter was ineligible, so Bob had to grit his teeth and play despite being in severe pain every time he touched the ball. Bob made quite a few great saves, and perhaps epitomised the spirit of the team.

But now for a carp! How sad that such a splendid game should be watched by a crowd of just under 1,000! Wealdstone's meagre gate, in the cold light of day in the Sunday papers, looked quite forlorn matched against the big crowds of the other three quarter-final games. And for once we didn't even have Watford to blame! When one realises that Frickley Athletic brought three coaches of supporters, then we really had no more than our normal quota of 800 or so. Honest to God, here's Wealdstone, poised to win the finest football competition outside the Football League; within two matches of a Wembley Stadium appearance, and we cannot get a thousand people! TRAGIC . . .

Is there an answer? I won't harp on the fact that our visitors tonight, Yeovil, already earmarked for relegation barring a miracle, attracted 1,300 on Saturday when even entertaining the BOTTOM club!! Harrow people must have lost all sense of proportion!

The match was marred of course, by the very painful injury to our skipper Paul Bowgett, whose right eye was totally and completely closed, with severe bruising all around, as the result of being quite brutally elbowed. When I saw Paul soon after the match he looked a sorry sight – more reminiscent of a heavyweight boxing match than a football game. But hard cookies like Paul do not crumble, so I do not suppose he will be out of action too long!

The FA Trophy Competition did not begin their meeting at Lancaster Gate until 1 pm yesterday, and so the semi-final draw was not expected until mid-afternoon. As this programme had to go to press at 10 a.m. I am unable to comment on it. But the full draw WILL be found in this issue.

Finally, a hearty and sincere welcome to Yeovil Town. How sad it is to see them so lowly placed, for quite frankly, I believe the Gola League is a much poorer outfit without the inclusion of such a famous club as Yeovil, with their splendid ground and facilities. If they ARE relegated, I am sure everyone in Non-League football will wish them a return the very next season.

A WORTHY ISSUE . . .

CONGRATULATIONS to S. Khanna, who has edited the latest issue of Long Ball down the Middle. I found it most interesting and informative, and thanks to contributor Sudhir Rawal for the kind references he made in his informative piece on the Wealdstone programme. Sudhir, I note you would like the programme to carry attendances. Frankly, I've never been too keen to publish these, for the simple reason that usually they are not something I wish to boast about – and advertisers of course are after maximum impact! However, you'll be delighted to know that as from next season they WILL be given in, may I say, a completely revamped programme for our present format still does not satisfy me!

At 50p LBDTM is an excellent buy, and such enthusiasm should be encouraged, so I hope everyone will buy a copy.

We can't identify the match - or indeed the season this particular picture was taken. But it shows the legendary Danny Wilshire going down to make a save. It is estimated that there were 5,000 people crammed on to the High Meadow terrace as shown above, but attendances of 10,000 were the norm in those lovely far-off days!

Introducing Yeovil Town

STEVE SMITH: Keeper. Signed for Yeovil in August 1984 after a spell as Player/Manager for Trowbridge Town. A fearless keeper who has had League experience with Crewe, Bradford City & Birmingham.

DAVID LINNEY: Signed from Oxford United at start of season 83/84. One of the most accomplished full backs in the Gola League and was voted the Player of the Year last season. Started his career with Birmingham City signed for Yeovil in competition from many other clubs. Team Captain.

RICHIE HORTON: Another local player who is enjoying a testimonial year, his attitude is tremendous whether he is in the first or second team. A great club player who plays at full back or midfield.

PAUL THORPE: Has played for Newport, Bristol City and Torquay. Signed for Yeovil in September 1984. Strong, powerful central defender who also scores his fair share of goals from set pieces. Only twenty years old and could well return to the Football League before long.

GERRY GOW Manager: Took over the Managership in September 84. Made his name in Football League as an aggressive midfielder player with Bristol City, Manchester City, Rotherham, Burnley. Played in the F.A. Cup final with Manchester City. Born in Glasgow, first League Club was Bristol City, commanded a £185,000 fee when sold to Manchester City.

MALCOLM GOLD: Club Captain and Yeovil's longest serving player. Has a testimonial this year. A local wholehearted player who over the years has developed into a very mature player. Plays in midfield or defence with equal success, after five years he scored his first goal.

JONECONOMOU: A midfielder player who has played in the League with Bristol City. Signed for Yeovil in November 84 and has added skill and class to midfield. Started his career as a AP with Arsenal.

COLIN BARNES: Signed from Torquay United in October 84 for a fee of £3,000 and initially went a long way to repaying this fee by scoring six goals in his first seven games with the Club. Made his name as a prolific goal scorer with Barnet.

PAUL CHEESLEY: Started his playing career at Norwich City and after being spotted playing in Bristol by Ron Saunders local scout, returned to Bristol City to play and helping them to promotion to the First Division. Had an injury in his second season First Div. which finished his League career. Snapped up by Gerry Gow early this season.

JEREMY BROWN: A fast and tricky left winger who on his day is one of the most exciting players in the Gola League. Now in his fifth season with the Club having been signed from Newport Co. also had a loan spell with Birmingham.

Kettering-Northampton Merger?

ALTHOUGH Northampton Town have apparently officially denied that they could soon be taken over by Kettering Town, sources in the Midlands tell me that a merger between the two clubs is indeed more than a possibility. Indeed I understand that discussions have already taken place, and that Kettering chairman John Murphy believes that in the event of a merger, Northampton would leave their County Ground and move to Rockingham Road.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NEWS

GOOD evening everyone. Tonight we extend our usual Lower Mead welcome to our visitors Yeovil Town F.C.

Last Saturday was a remarkable day in all respects - a fantastic result following a superb display from the lads, and despite a lower than anticipated crowd a great atmosphere prevailed throughout the game. With vocal support like we had on Saturday we can shout our way to Wembley - no problem!!

Our grateful thanks go to Ray Corner for the donation to the Programme Shop of a huge collection of old Wealdstone programmes. Toby is always grateful for any such donations, large or small, and all go to aid our fund-raising efforts. Talking of fund-raising, don't forget to support our raffle tonight - ticket sellers will be on the look out to relieve you of your spare 10p's around the ground and in the Club. With an F.A. Trophy semi-final clash now definitely on the fixture list now is the time to purchase your actual Wealdstone scarf, etc. Why not call into the shop tonight? Copies of the Wealdstone "theme", the single by Roy Davies and Steve McCargo are on sale in the shop.

A further reminder to purchase your copy of the new "Long Ball Down the Middle Magazine". This is our very own Supporters Club magazine and is good value for 50p. Our thanks again to Mr. Khanna for its production.

Here's to two points tonight!!

NICK DUGARD, Secretary
