ON THE BALL with BRIAN HALL

A very happy 1985 to you, your families, and of course Wealdstone F.C.

Through circumstances beyond our control, there was a slight hiccup in the "Operation Xmas - Maximum Points" plan, when the pitch at Barnet was totally unplayable, and it was fairly obvious there had been some sort of battle the previous Saturday. Alas, valiant efforts by the Barnet management failed to satisfy the referee. The condition of the pitch I feel would have been detrimental to the Gola League football. To play under such conditions would have been totally farcical, and consequently the playing staff were required to report at 10 am on Thursday for training, with a few muffled comments of "and a merry Xmas to you too".

There are vital championship points at stake today in our encounter with Barnet, and an opportunity for us to pull away from Kidderminster who were defeated by Telford on Boxing Day.

Kidderminster are a good footballing side, have been enjoying an excellent run recently, and who are currently, I feel, one of the Clubs likely to be jockeying for a position at the end of season run-in.

Have a look at the substitutes outfits today; they are in fact thermal ski suits, and have been presented to us by our ever faithful Vice Presidents Club. I am told the outfits are so snug, that the players are jostling for the No. 12 and 14 shirts! Our Vice Presidents are a great bunch of people, who certainly appear to enjoy themselves after a game, and I thoroughly recommend anyone who is considering joining them should do so.

So, from the Dressing Room, thanks very much and once again, Happy and Prosperous New Year to you all.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NEWS

GOOD AFTERNOON everyone and a happy New Year! Today we welcome our friends from Underhill, Barnet F.C. and a tough game is in prospect.

Don't forget to visit the Club Shop this afternoon, in addition to Toby's magnificent range of programmes we have a good range of Wealdstone Souvenirs in stock - including some unexpected supplies of crested sweaters. Roy Davies' record continues to outsell everything in sight! - if you haven't got your copy yet, you'd better hurry along to the shop at half-time with your £1.25!

Raffle tickets will as usual be on sale this afternoon and can be purchased in the Morrill Arms or around the ground before kick-off.

We still have a key in our possession in the club shop - if you have lost what looks like a door key please call in to the shop (it was found some weeks ago).

Lets all get behind the lads today and hear that "famous Wealdstone roar" and remember . . .
"We are the Stones and we are out on our own"

Introducing Barnet

BARRY FRY (Manager): The longest serving manager in the Alliance Premier (now Gold) League, having been appointed to the post at Underhill in 1979, Barry played for Manchester United, Bolton Wanderers, Luton Town, Gravesend & Northfleet, Orient, Romford and Bedford before turning to management with Dunstable. He was later manager at both Bedford Town and Hillingdon Borough.

PETER BROWN (Midfield): Peter joined Barnet from Tring Town in 1982. He began his career at Chelsea before moving on to play in Wimbledon's first team, generally as a right full-back.

ANDY GOODCHILD (Defender): Another recent signing, teenager defender. Andy was once on Tottenham Hotspur's books.

KEVIN MILLETT (Defender): Signed from Hillingdon Borough for a £2,000 fee in 1979, Kevin has served the Bees well in the APL. He has also played for Bedford Town and Luton Town.

BILL BALDRY (Defender): Following a spell as an amateur with Luton Town, Bill went on to play for Cambridge United, Bedford Town and Bishop's Stortford. He joined Barnet from St. Albans City in 1983.

JOHN MARGERRISON (Midfield): After commencing his career at Tottenham Hotspur, John moved on to gain plenty of Football League experience with Fulham and Orient. He joined Barnet last summer.

EDWIN STEIN (Midfield): The brother of Luton and England striker Brian, Eddie joined Barnet from Dagenham in 1982. He has also played for Edgware and Harrow Borough.

NICKY EVANS (Forward): Nicky partnered Stuart Atkins in Kettering's front line before Atkins moved to Underhill. Nicky joined Barnet in May 1983. His previous clubs include QPR and Peterborough United.

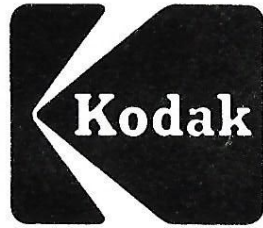

STUART ATKINS (Forward): Barnet paid Kettering Town £3,000 to sign Stuart in March 1982. He has also played for Chesham United and Dunstable.

STEVE MAHONEY (Forward): Barnet's leading goal-scorer last season, Steve joined the Bees from Hitchin Town in 1982. He has also served Stevenage Athletic and Hertford Town.

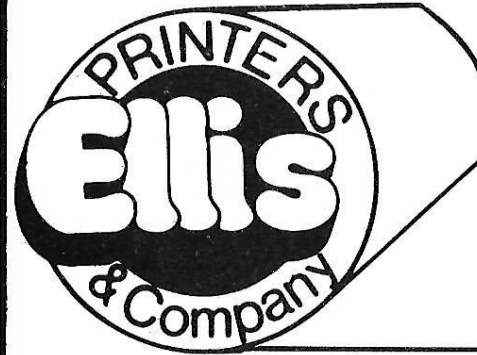

MIKE PITTAWAY (Defender): A former England Schoolboys international, Mike joined Barnet from Arsenal three years ago. He was a regular member of the Gunners' reserves side in season 1980/81.

JOHN DOCKER (Midfield): Formerly with Glasgow Rangers and Notts County, John was in top form last season and is widely tipped to return to full-time soccer in the not too distant future.

MARK HALSEY (Goalkeeper): Previous club Cambridge City. Age 22 years.

Around the Clubs

ALTRINCHAM: Altrincham have transferred midfielder Phil Derbyshire to Stafford Rangers for a small fee. Derbyshire, a former England Semi-professional international, was formerly with Northern Premier League side Mossley and has been unable to play for Altrincham this season due to work commitments restricting his training.

BARNET: Keeper Gary Phillips has been transferred to Brentford for a £5,000 fee. Striker Nicky Evans has turned down a move to Nuneaton Borough after the clubs had agreed a £4,000 fee and midfielder John Docker has been transfer-listed at his own request.

BARROW: Barrow moved swiftly following the resignation of player/manager Peter McDonnell and have appointed Brian Kidd in his place. Kidd, who was formerly with Manchester United, Arsenal, Everton, Manchester City and Bolton Wanderers, won two full caps for England and has recently been playing in the U.S.A.

Joining Kidd at Barrow as assistant manager is John Cooke, who has steered Droylesden to the top of Division Two of the North-West Counties League this season. They will be assisted by former Workington manager Joe Wojciechowicz, who joined the club in the summer as assistant to McDonnell. McDonnell is staying with the club as a player and it is hoped his form will continue to be as good as it has been since he joined the club in July of last year.

F.A. PLAN THWARTED

THE F.A. have decided to scrap their proposals to limit full membership of the Association to Clubs in certain leagues, following resistance from County Associations and Leagues up and down the country. We always did think this revolutionary proposal was a non-starter!

ENGLAND V WALES

THE England semi-professional side will play Wales at the Buck's Head, Telford Utd's ground on Tuesday, March 26th, kick-off 7.30 pm.

New Manager For England

KEVIN VERITY, Midlands (West) regional coach of the Football Association, has been appointed manager of the England Semi-professional team in place of Keith Wright, who is leaving the F.A. in February to take up the post of secretary of the Golf Association.

Verity was with Halifax Town as a player from 1957 to 1960, later appearing for several Non-league clubs. He then held various coaching appointments prior to joining the F.A. in a similar capacity in 1974.

BILL WILLIAMS RESIGNS

Mr. Bill Williams has resigned as manager of Maidstone United to take up an appointment outside football in South Africa.

He has had an illustrious career with the Kent Club, and had a spell coaching in South Africa and the United States before returning to Maidstone, where he was voted the Alliance League Manager of the Season for 1983/84.

We wish him all success in the future.

PEBBLES CLUB NEWS

WE wish to thank Mr. Paul McGann (Sports Master) and pupils of Claremont High School, Kenton for their donation of five pounds towards the "Pebbles Club" funds.

Claremont has had an association with this club going back to the late 1940's and early 1950's. They were our nursery team during that period. Danny Wiltshire and Stuart Pearce being two of many of the pupils from that school who made it to the top of senior football. We sincerely hope that the pupils of Claremont and indeed the many other schools who are associated with the "Pebbles Club" are enjoying their visits to Lower Mead Stadium.

In the New Year we are going to organise a visit to Wembley Stadium together with a visit to behind the scenes of Lower Mead Stadium so watch out for more details in these programmes in the future. Keep those donations rolling in to enable us to help the pupils of all the Harrow Schools who are associated with the "Pebbles Club" scheme to enjoy their visits to "Lower Mead Stadium". Donations to Ken Wiltshire, Admin Director. (Cheques to be made out to Wealdstone F.C. Ltd.)

A Happy Christmas to all Pebble Club Readers, From the Board.
